ROAD RAGE LEADS TO SERIOUS INJURY

A special friendship

AILSA Stockwell from Bramley met with young Junior, 6, when she was doing voluntary work in Tanzania last year.

To help her young friend receive the best education possible, she completed the Welsh three peaks challenge at the weekend, raising a total of £855.

Along with her friends and family, she managed to climb a total of 2,864m.

Man hurt after a van hits him on the hard shoulder of M3, near Black Dam roundabout

A MAN was left with life-changing injuries after a road rage incident by Black Dam roundabout, days before a public exhibition on how to make the junction safer and less jammed will take place.

The man, in his 60s, was rushed to hospital after being hit by a van on the M3's hard shoulder off Black Dam roundabout on Tuesday.

The crash came before a consultation launches on Tuesday in Festival Place on £11.2million works to ease traffic on the major pinch point.

Basingstoke councillor Tony Jones, of Buckskin - who uses the roundabout everyday - said: "Something obviously needs to be done and fast.

"People use that roundabout in a rush - you can see why there are accidents. Work should have taken place on the roundabout long ago."

The man is said to be in a stable condition with life-changing leg injuries at Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital.

A van driver and the man – driving a red VW Golf – were on the slip road driving onto the motorway northbound when police say they pulled onto the hard shoulder during a road rage incident at about 9.45am.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Hampshire Constabulary spokesman Meline Turkington said: "They both had words and as the VW driver was getting back into the car the driver of the van parked behind drove off, and the van's empty trailer clipped him, causing serious leg injuries."

She added that the van driver might not have been aware that he hit the man before he carried on driving northbound on the M3.

Police launched an appeal to track down the van driver, described as being white, 40 to 50 years old, 5ft 6, with a thick neck, and cropped brown hair that is balding at the front.

He was wearing a grey top and was driving a white flatbed with a high cab and grey trailer.

Basingstoke councillor Sven Godeson, of Basing, said: "When the new arrangements are put into effect, road rage could be less likely to occur."

Councillor Paul Miller, of Chineham ward, said: "The works are long overdue in my opinion.

"The roundabout was a poor design in the first place - it is a very complex system at the moment.

"My mother in law refuses to use the Black Dam roundabout, you have to be so alert when you use it."

Planned improvements to Black Dam are due to start in October and last until summer 2015.

They are part of the government's £317million pinch point programme and will see it turned into a "hamburger" style roundabout – with a four-lane carriageway built through it.

Basingstoke MP Maria Miller said: "The Basingstoke Black Dam rounndabout has suffered from significant increases in traffic congestion in recent years because of the high levels of house building throughout North Hampshire.

Life-changing injuries

• From front page

"The road traffic accident earlier this week was a very tragic incident and I am sure the police and the relevant authorities will undertake a thorough investigation.

"The improvements now being made to the junction should have gone hand in hand with house building when it happened."

The Highways Agency's assistant service delivery manager, Ed French, said: "This is a significant improvement for this busy junction and it will bring substantial benefits to road users business and the general public.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"The improvements we're making will help to support the 13,220 jobs being created by the Basingstoke and Dean and Basing View developments by 2020, and will also help support local plans to create 4,080 homes by 2020."

The exhibition is due to start on Tuesday, September 23, between 10.30am and 5.30pm at the Discovery Centre at Festival Place shopping centre, Festival Way.

Vegemals take centre stage

• The veg sculptures on show at Hook's autumn fair

CREATIVITY and vegetable growing are not two things that normally go hand in hand.

But children were able to prove art and vegetables can meet when they put their impressive "vegemals" on show at the weekend.

Young green-fingered sculptors displayed their works of watermelon sharks, courgette platypuses and pumpkin hedgehogs at Hook's first Autumn fair and vegetable and flower show on Sunday.

The day was put on by the Hook Allotment Association to raise money to buy a new plot of land for local use as an allotment.

To help raise the funds, people came along and had the chance to show off their home-grown vegetables and sell local produce and plants.

As well as this, children were able to enter into seed tray, cupcake and gingerbread men competitions.

Sue Hinton, who was in charge of the fundraising at Hook Allotments, said: "It was lovely to see so many Hook folk coming out to support us.

"As well as the show, we raised another £850 towards the land purchase, which is fantastic, we are nearly there!"

Silk Mill show set for second year and for a bigger and better event

WHITCHURCH Silk Mill will host a country show on Sunday.

The second show the mill has held will include attractions of food and craft stalls, weaving, spinning and live music.

Last year over 1,000 visitors came along, although the organisers – Friends of Whitchurch Silk Mill – believe more people will attend due to the success of last year.

Marion Brinton, chairman of the Friends committee, said: "We created a really good mini-festival vibe last year and a lot of hard work has gone into ensuring a similar success this time.

"We'd love to see as many people as possible from the surrounding area as well as Whitchurch."

Whitchurch Silk Mill Country Show will take place on Sunday September 21, from 10.30am to 5pm at 28 Winchester Street, Whitchurch.

It will cost £2, but will be free for under-16s.

Woman funds school fees for African boy

A SIX-YEAR-OLD Tanzanian boy with learning difficulties can stay at school after a childcare worker from Bramley raised enough money for his fees.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Ailsa Stockwell, of Ringshall Gardens, scaled the three highest peaks in Wales on Saturday and Sunday to keep Junior at specialist Patandi School – a boarding school for kids with special needs.

Ailsa, 22, took the youngster under her wing during a trip volunteering in Tanzania in 2013.

She completed the mammoth task alongside her mum, a friend, and cousin – the four survivors of an eight-strong group who set out to tackle the peaks.

The group raised £855 – enough to pay for Junior's yearly £240 fees for more then three years.

She said: "He loves the school, he is so happy.

"He was a bit worried at the start, but when he saw the playground he was really excited.

"It is essential for him to board if he wants to live a normal life and have a job because at the moment he can't really communicate properly, and boarding will improve his speech."

Strangers made donations to the group during the climb to help boost the charity funds.

They hiked 1,085m up mount Snowdon in three hours and down in just over two hours, 893m up Cadair Idris peak in three hours and down in two and a half, and 886m up Pen y Fan in one hour and down in 45 minutes.

Ailsa, a childcare worker and marketing assistant, added: "It was so hard but we all did as well as we could.

"Everyone tried so hard, stuck together and all supported each other.

"We are way over target which is absolutely brilliant."

The group had set a target of £600 for the charity challenge.

Ailsa said she hoped to visit Junior again in Tanzania if she manages to save enough money in the next few years.

She added Junior's fees would be paid in yearly instalments, but some of the money would also go to the school to keep its boarding facilities up and running.

As a volunteer in 2013 she said they formed a special friendship and helped Junior's parents find the right school for him.

Councillor begging for delay to cuts told: "You're wasted"

A BASINGSTOKE councillor claims he was told "you're wasted" when he laid on the floor to beg for disabled children's funding cuts to be delayed during a meeting last week.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Hampshire county councillor for Basingstoke, Criss Connor, said he was unsure exactly what executive lead member for children's services at Hampshire County Council, Keith Mans, meant by the words.

But he added he was saddened his bid failed to push back planned £1.85million cuts to funding for short respite holidays for disabled children and their carers to 2016 from 2015.

Cllr Connor made the plea at a meeting last Friday of the Children and Young People Select Committee which discussed the proposals.

"I'm not very happy at all," said Cllr Connor.

"I am saddened that people have not got the will to support such a matter. All we were asking for was more time.

"A year for the county council really is not long at all."

The decision was called-in by Cllr Connor on August 12 and other organisations including Hampshire Parent/Carer Network.

They wanted more time to allow parents, charities and organisations more time to plan how they would deal with the blow of the cuts.

A 12-week consultation on the proposals is due to launch tomorrow.

Gail Bedding, co-chair of the Hampshire Parent/Carer Network, spoke at the meeting in Winchester.

She said: "I don't want any cuts, it breaks my heart to think about it, yet again the most vulnerable families are being hit, however if this is going to happen then we need to make sure we do it right.

"So let's continue to work together – give us all more time, another year will help.

"We can't do it overnight, please delay these horrendous cuts as the Task & Finish Group and in turn the Select Committee recommended."

Speaking to the Observer after the meeting, Ms Bedding added: "I am disappointed that we could not change things in the meeting.

"We have to hope and pray that the he will delay the funding once the consultation is over."

Hampshire County Council is due to reduce the budget from £3.2m to £1.3m.

To view the consultation after it is launched go to consultations.hants.gov.uk.

Art showcasing town talents gets new home

A POP-UP art gallery in Festival Place moved to a new site in the centre on Saturday.

All Our Own Work, a project set up by Basingstoke resident Kev Munday and friends, Lee Baker and Bill Thorpe, gives artists in Basingstoke and Deane the chance to have their work showcased to the public.

The pop-up gallery moved into an empty shop beside Modelzone in Festival Place and displays the work of 30 artists in the area.

Mr Munday, 28, said: "It's been amazing.

"Everyday we get between five and 10 new artists asking how they can put their artwork in.

"It really is a good opportunity for local artists to build up a foundation for their work.

"We're exposing the public to different artforms and with it being located in a shopping centre, we have people who wouldn't necessarily visit an art gallery come along."

This is the third exhibition by All Our Own Work, which moved from an empty unit where the clothes shop Republic used to be.

By working with Festival Place, the gallery uses empty units six weeks at a time to exhibit a variety of work, and does not take commission for art work that is sold.

"This new location is a lot more like an art gallery so we are really happy with it," said Mr Munday.

"I would say to aspiring artists who want to be get their work seen to keep practicing, keep showing your art to as many people as possible and contact us when you have examples you want to display," he added.

All Our Own Work is open on Mondays to Saturdays from 9am to 5pm and on Sundays, 11am to 5pm.

For more information, visit allourownwork.co.uk.

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association.

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures.

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless.

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

Are you over 40?
Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?

New tree strategy for town set to be approved

PLANS to make it easier to axe dangerous trees in and around Basingstoke were expected to be approved last night as the Observer went to print.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The community environment and partnerships committee met to debate a new tree and woodland strategy for the borough.

The strategy – which means nuisance trees can be chopped down rather than just pruned - was recommended for approval at the meeting from 6.30pm

The new approach was put together following financial claims made against the council because of the damage trees have caused to properties.

A pre-meeting report states a "more comprehensive approach to management" of trees should be taken.

This new approach will remove nuisance trees rather than prune them; identify and remove trees that are at a risk of causing subsidence; replace trees with a wider range of species; reduce the future maintenance burden through effective tree management and improve the management of council owned woodland.

Also due to be discussed in the meeting was the new reserve of £470,000 to be used for tree maintenance over the next five years.

The council also planned to discuss in the meeting how they would manage their woodlands to improve biodiversity, access and recreation and look to receive advice and funding from the Forestry Commission to do so.

The portfolio holder, Cllr Hayley Eachus, is quoted in the agenda to have said: "Speaking from my own experience, and one I'm sure I share with colleagues, one of the main concerns I hear about from residents and most frequent issues are with nuisance trees.

"This will allow us to deal with the problem, to face the matter in hand, to remove those problem trees and replant with a diverse range of trees."

She added: "I am delighted that with this programme we will see real benefits to the green nature of the borough and our trees and I am pleased we are investing nearly half a million pounds into it."

Tony Christmas, 82, of Tollway, in Chineham, first moved to his property in 1982 when the trees overlooking his garden were not a problem.

However, now he has said that the trees overlook his garden and he has since applied to the council for them to be removed and replaced but has not yet been successful.

He said: "My garden was once a sunny, pleasant place but it has become shaded.

"For 10 to 12 years, the trees have been towering over us.

"I am worried that there is a danger of the roots causing damage to the property.

"I hope the council can eventually devise a strategy to deal with trees in the area that are a danger to property."

Visit basingstokeobserver.co.uk to see comments made at the meeting on the tree and woodland strategy.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council

Cllr John Izett

Cabinet Member for Property, Finance and Commissioning

THE way Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council (BDBC) determines what services it should provide and how best these should be delivered is undergoing a major re-examination.

Instead of doing what has always been done, BDBC is looking at certain services from a new perspective - what "outcomes" on, for example, housing, arts and culture, prevention of crime and anti-social behaviour, and public transport, do our residents want most, based upon surveys of their views, and how should these be provided effectively and efficiently?

Should this council even be directly involved in certain services?

This new approach is called "commissioning" and it is my responsibility as cabinet member following council's approval in 2013.

Basingstoke is at the forefront of this change nationally and our progress is being watched by central government and other local councils.

The first steps towards implementing commissioning are now taking place.

We have started with arts and culture services (theatre and concert halls, museums and galleries, and outdoor events).

Since January, representatives of groups involved in our rich cultural scene have been working together in a new forum, a Commissioning Outcome Group, along with councillors and officers, to review the £2.272million of ratepayers' money spent annually in grants and to recommend how we might do things differently and better.

I am delighted creative, innovative ideas have emerged with exciting implications for arts and culture in our borough.

Policy recommendations are planned to go to the council overview committee and then Cabinet next month.

Decisions must operate within a framework of what is affordable when government funding is being squeezed each year and, therefore, what council priorities should be across all services.

Dad and son's ride for soldiers' charity

A DAD who cycled to Paris with his son to raise money for the Royal British Legion described the 460km challenge as "phenomenal".

John Noakes, 57, of Sherfield-on-Loddon, and his 26-year-old son, Luke, from London, took part in the Pedal to Paris to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the First World War.

Made up of 300 riders, Pedal to Paris is an arduous journey from London to the Arc de Triomphe in France's capital.

It takes cyclists through a variety of landscapes over four days, accompanied by a team of mechanics, physios and motorcycle outriders.

"It was the most amazing event I have ever been involved in," said Mr Noakes - who rolled into Paris on September 8.

"The camaraderie, enthusiasm and resistance of the whole team meant we could get through the ride.

"The whole thing was extremely well organised – we had lots of assistance."

Included in the ride was a visit to British war memorials in the Somme and the chance to lay a wreath as part of a ceremony.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

John said: "It was very emotional, you could have heard a pin drop it was so quiet.

"That is something you don't get to do everyday."

Mr Noakes was spurred on by his son, who encouraged him to take part.

"My son is 30 years younger than me and stronger so he found it easier, but we did it together," he said.

"He stayed back with me on the final day, it was great to have done it with him."

Mr Noakes and his son initially set a target of £1,600 to donate to the Royal British Legion who support the armed forces and veterans.

But they have now reached over £2,500 and plan to do the ride again next year.

John said: "The money is still coming in, we have exceeded our target by 154 per cent.

"If you believe in honouring our war heroes and want to get fitter, it is a great thing to do.

"We'll absolutely do it again."

Odiham kids design flag for parliament

CHILDREN from a primary school in Odiham have been tasked with designing a flag for North East Hampshire by the Houses of Parliament.

Mayhill Junior School was picked to create a flag which represents the area.

Headteacher Tom May said: "I am extremely proud that the children of Mayhill will have the chance to create a unique flag that the whole of our local community can share in."

The school, in Buryfields, was nominated by Parliament's 2015 Anniversaries Team as part of celebrations for two events in English democracy – 750 years since Simon de Montfort's parliament and 800 years since the sealing of Magna Carta.

Odiham has strong links both events as King John, who built Odiham castle, rode from the village to Windsor in June and agreed to the Magna Carta.

King John's daughter, Eleanor, lived in Odiham and was married to Simon de Montfort.

Parliament is asking 650 schools – one from each constituency to design a flag to represent where they live.

The flag designed by Mayhill may be flown from the tower of All Saints' Church during Odiham's Magna Carta celebrations in May and June next year.

Mr May added: "We are already starting to think ahead to the celebrations and look forward to working with parents and the local community."

Campaign to get superfast broadband

• Everest Park housing development

CAMPAIGNING residents in Popley are fed up with not having superfast broadband in their homes and have been in contact with the county council over the issue, the Observer learnt last week.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

People from the Everest Park housing development met at Councillor Jane Frankum's house on Wednesday, September 10, to discuss what could be done to improve broadband speeds in the area.

Oliver Colenso, who lives at Lowe gardens in the Linden Homes part of Everest Park, is leading the campaign and said: "We have been trying to get the developers to do something about it for some time.

"I was promised superfast broadband before I moved in but nothing has happened and the developers claim it has nothing to do with them.

"I would work from home more if I could but it is too difficult."

Everest Park, a development of 401 properties, is one of only a small number of areas in the town left without fibre based broadband.

In other surrounding properties in Basingstoke, Internet has speeds between 78mbps and 150mbps.

However, at Everest Park, speeds are just between two and four mbps.

Cllr Jane Frankum, of Popley West, said: "As a county councillor I will be bringing up the subject to Hampshire County Council and seeing how much more assistance we can give to urban areas.

"The county council seems concentrated on giving superfast broadband to rural areas. However, urban areas are being forgotten.

"A lot still needs to be done and we need a speedy solution."

Councillor David Potter, of Popley East, said: "People have moved in expecting reasonably good broadband but are being denied good services.

"Taylor Wimpey have frankly been dishonest with residents.

"It is a huge disadvantage for people who live on the development, especially those who want to work from home."

Mr Colenso who moved into the development in 2013, revealed that Taylor Wimpey claim the Internet speed has nothing to do with them.

But he says it could have been easy to get in touch with Openreach, which manages BT's access network, to install a fibre service – which would cost around £30,000.

In 2010, Openreach upgraded most of Basingstoke so it could support fibre broadband but Everest Park – one of the newest developments in town – remains one of the few areas with no fibre service available.

According to Mr Colenso, no indication has been given about when the broadband could be installed.

A total of 91 households out of 401 are registered to support the campaign. Mr Colenso is urging more residents in the development to sign up at fibre.everestpark.org.uk/register.

Crackdown on town litterers

BASINGSTOKE and Deane Borough Council is cracking down on those who litter in the borough by issuing on the spot fines to those who do not use bins.

Community safety patrol officers will be issuing fixed penalty notices of £75 to those seen littering.

The introduction of the new penalties are part of a new scheme to improve Top of the Town and the Market Square.

Ranil Jayawardena, the Council's deputy leader and cabinet member for strategy, said: "Whether it's a cigarette butt or fast food packaging, it is not acceptable for people to drop their litter on our streets.

"We will not allow a small number of people to spoil the town.

"I would like to encourage everyone to dispose of their litter sensibly, with the warning that our officers will fine people spotted flouting the law."

The borough council reported that they spent £18,000 on removing chewing gum from streets surrounding the town's Market Square when it was repaved last year.

Councillor Terri Reid, who is leading the Town Centre Programme, which aims to improve the area economically and aesthetically, said: "We're creating a more vibrant, cleaner and safer town.

"That's why we've recently deep cleaned the Top of the Town and also been involved in repaving the Market Square to make these areas more attractive."

Sky lantern ban

HAMPSHIRE: The leader of Hampshire County Council will be considering a ban on the use of sky lanterns on all council owned property at his decision day on September 26.

The leader of the council, Roy Perry, said: "We've been concerned about the safety of sky lanterns and the potential damage they can cause for some time."

New cemetery site to be debated amid concerns

A MEETING to decide if land in North Waltham should be turned into extra cemetery space was underway last night as the Observer went to print.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's community environment and partnerships committee earmarked a site next to North Waltham Crematorium as the most suitable place.

It was made top of their list in 2012 but concerns were raised by funeral directors.

Elizabeth Harris, director at Basingstoke's Spencer & Peyton funeral directors, said: "My main worry is about the people who are going to visit it.

"There is no bus route to the proposed site, it is too far away.

"Most people who will visit the cemetery will be the older generation and if they haven't got a car, how will they get there?

"If you don't have a car, you will be stuck. It will be costly and who will run it?

"I think there are a lot more spaces available in Basingstoke for a site, there is no need to go to North Waltham."

Six sites were suggested to the committee which decided only North Waltham was suitable - which lies seven miles from Basingstoke town centre.

The 15.9 acres would provide burial land for about 90 years.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The committee's vice-chairman Martin Biermann said: "I don't think it would make any sense if we were to settle with a location that retired people who don't have their own transport can't visit and I will fully back the funeral directors."

A traffic impact assessment is still necessary before an application is submitted.

In a 2013 consultation 66 people supported and 37 objected to the plans.

Portfolio holder, Councillor Hayley Eachus, said: "I believe we need to proceed with this, we currently have provision for the next five years at Worting Road but we need to ensure that we have new provision in place before then and to do that we have to act soon.

She added: "I appreciate it is not a perfect site; some have concerns about the distance from the town centre.

"For that reason we are proposing to introduce a subsidised taxi share scheme which will allow people the flexibility they need to access the site."

Skydive for girl's fake limbs

A TADLEY man plunged 13,000ft last week to help buy prosthetic limbs for a six-year-old girl who lost her arms and legs to meningitis.

Mark Phillips, 32, of Brookside Walk, dropped out of a plane for the skydiving fundraiser for Charlotte Nott, from Oxford.

He faced the challenge with girlfriend, Keely, whose daughter goes to school with Charlotte.

Mr Phillips said: "It was brilliant - really invigorating. It is the third time I have done a skydive and I have skydived and this time round it was the best.

"To raise money for Charlotte is such a good cause.

"Any way we can help Charlotte in her future is worthwhile."

The pair have so far raised over £1,000 - which will go towards buying Charlotte specialist limbs.

Because she is growing Charlotte needs two sets of legs each year, which cost around £6,000.

The skydive was meant to take place in August but was postponed due to bad weather until last Sunday.

The couple's employer Fastflow Group UK, a property repair and maintenance company, gave £500 towards the cause.

Neil Armstrong, Fastflow Group UK owner, said: "This is such a worthy cause and Keely and Mark are very brave to have taken on such a challenge."

One cunning mouse about

"THERE'S no such thing as a Gruffalo!"

But yes, there is, and he will be at the Haymarket from today until Sunday.

The story of a clever mouse who escapes the jaws of other animals by telling them that he's off to see a made-up monster, the Gruffalo, is surprised to meet the beast while walking through the dangerous woods.

The award-winning children's book, published in 1999, has sold over 10 million copies worldwide and was turned into a film 10 years later.

Ellie Bell, who plays the mouse, says she is looking forward to being the star of the story, and returning to the Haymarket.

"This won't be the first time I have performed at The Haymarket Theatre," she said.

"I performed in "The Gruffalo's Child" there in February of 2013 and I very much enjoyed it. The audiences were great and I am excited to go back.

"It's also great fun playing the mouse.

" She has a very strong personality which keeps me on my toes. I am constantly finding new moments during the story where she is scared, mischievous or just having fun.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"There is always something new to find."

Ellie, who graduated from Hertfordshire Theatre School in 2009, has performed in children's productions such as Marsha in 'Roary The Racing Car Live on stage' and Kat in 'The Little Big Club'.

She added: "Children's theatre wasn't what I set out to do when I first started.

"I trained in musical theatre and that is what I was aiming for.

"But back then I didn't realise the fulfilment I would get from entertaining young children, and the joy it would bring me to see family's having a great day out together.

"For most children that come it is there first theatre experience, to be part of that and see them getting involved is such a brilliant buzz."

Magic in Basingstoke

PREPARE to be amazed as the Champions of Magic entertain Basingstoke at the Anvil on Saturday.

The award winning team of Young & Strange, Fay Presto, Alex McAleer and Edward Hilsum will be surprising an audience to the core with tricks only an imagination could fulfil.

The youngest member of the group is Edward Hilsum, aged 22, who says he can't wait to show the Basingstoke audience his latest tricks.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"I will definitely be showing off some new tricks on Saturday!," he said.

"One of my latest ideas is called 'Silver' - I decided I wanted to give one person from the audience a magical moment that would remain with them.

"But I wanted to do this without using big props or equipment. The result seems simple but took over two years to create."

Edward made his name at 18 working for The Magic Circle, before the British company sponsored him to go to America to start a one-man show.

Since then, he has performed all over Europe and the US.

"My parents bought me a toy magic set when I was just eight years old," he continued.

"But the real turning point for me was seeing the incredible magician Lance Burton on television.

"I watched Lance in Las Vegas once and it was one of the most magical moments of my life. I've been lucky enough to meet Lance a few times since, and his advice has been invaluable in developing my own act."

Edward, who has a first class degree in psychology, performed at the opening ceremony of London 2012, and has been described by fellow magician Derren Brown as a 'great act'.

"Derren is one of the greatest live performers," added Edward. "I was absolutely delighted to hear that he enjoyed what I do."

You can see the Champions of Magic at the Anvil this Saturday, September 20. Go to anvilarts.org.uk for more information.

Peugeot's new runabout

REVIEW: Peugeot 108 Allure 1.2 VTi 5dr

By Philip Shoulder

@writeonmotoring

JOINING the well-regarded Toyota Aygo and Citroen C1 urban runabouts is Peugeot's new 108 – the third car in the Japanese/French alliance.

Sharing the same platform and engines, the 108 gets its own look in keeping with the latest Peugeot models: comprising a chrome grille, narrow, tapering headlights and distinctive claw print rear lights.

In addition to the usual safety features, electric windows, central locking and LED running lights are standard across the range.

On all bar base level Access trim, there's a multi-function steering wheel, 7" touch screen and air conditioning, while plusher Allure adds a rev counter, keyless entry, auto lights and a rear reversing camera.

First impressions of 108's interior are mainly positive.

This high-spec Allure model boasts porcelain coloured dash inserts, an attractive piano black finished centre control cluster and touch-screen infotainment system.

It's all easy to operate, as is the rest of the switchgear – although some of this feels a bit flimsy. The hard scratchy plastic door cards are unlikely to win many fans either.

Despite its diminutive dimensions, the 108 manages to offer genuine four-seater accommodation.

The one-piece moulded front seats look good and are comfortable.

A city car is never going to boast the biggest of boots, and the 108's 196 litres remains small, even though it's 139 litres larger than the old 107's. However, this extends to 760 litres with the 50:50 split seats folded.

Upon start-up the motor sounds quite unrefined, with vibration permeating the cabin. Initially it also seems difficult to pull away and crawl along in traffic smoothly – the car faltering, until you learn to overcompensate with more revs as the clutch bites, which sorts the problem.

Paradoxically for a modestly powered city car, the 108 actually comes into its own at higher speeds, where refinement also improves.

Liberal application of throttle overcomes the comparative lack of torque (116 Nm) and sees this French tot zip along enthusiastically (0-62 mph in 11 seconds) against a characterful three-cylinder wail.

A slick, 'knife-through-butter' five-speed manual gearbox and accurate, nicely weighted steering adds to the car's appeal.

The 108 makes a fine fist of motorway work, too – with rather intrusive road roar (at higher speeds) being the only annoyance.

VERDICT

Peugeot's newcomer might be a little way off class best, but the 108 is a solid improvement over its venerable 107 predecessor.

This French city-car is also capable out of town, good looking, well equipped and surprisingly fun to drive.

Taking care of your motor

FASTFIT Service Centre is celebrating its tenth anniversary at Unit One, Moniton Trading Estate in West Ham Lane.

And the independent automotive specialist is proud to be expanding in a bid to give its customers exactly what they want. "Everything your car needs is here under one roof", explained manager Byron Lewis who, like his team of experts, has spent a lifetime in the automotive industry.

He added: At Fastfit we offer hourly rates which are some of the best in Basingstoke. No job is beyond us and we are quite simply a one-stop shop and more besides. Whether it's and entire engine overhaul or just tweaking the brakes. we will do it, and do it well."

The business is continually expanding and includes a new mobile tyre fitting and home start service. A comprehensive diagnostic service can also be provided and the business issues many dealer level tools ranging from Ford, Jaguar to Land Rover and Volkswagen.

Fastfit offers everything from MOTs and minor servicing to major repairs and complex engine work.

More complex issues include an Engine Control Unit (ECU) remapping service which makes the vehicle more responsive and smoother to driver. In these tough time, it also slightly increases the miles-per-gallon!

Fastfit Service Centre also stocks a rang of budget or performance tyres and it can also custom build stainless steel exhaust systems.

"Come and give us a try. You won't be disappointed," concluded Byron.

What our customers think

• My car had been taken to three different repair centres which was suffering from low power none of them diagnosed the problem. I took it to these guys for a remap and full exhaust in the hopes it would fix it. It was better but Byron still thought it wasn't right so spent another couple of hours diagnosing it! He didn't charge me extra and even finished after they should of closed. You just don't get that kind of service these days. Amazing!
Cheers,
Clive Baldwin

• Great service from the whole of the Fast Fit team. They know what they are talking about and are happy to help with any query.
I wanted something activated on my car that was not activated at the factory. A dealer wanted upwards of £100 to do the job, I contacted Fast Fit and they have the same Dealer Software. Done the job quick and for a third of the price!
These guys definitely know what they're talking about and I would recommend them to anyone!
Chris H

• Excellent service! Very polite and great value for money prices! I will recommend to friends and family. If you need your car repaired at the right price don't look any further.

Two wins give Bison the best possible start to new season

BASINGSTOKE Bison enjoyed the best possible start to their English Ice Hockey Premier League season, winning both of their opening fixtures over the weekend.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Saturday's home match saw Bison triumph 6-4 over Peterborough Phantoms, the highlight of which being a hat-trick from Joe Greener.

The Phantoms got off to a strong start as Edgar Bebris fired them into the lead, before three successive strikes from Greener put Bison in command.

Powerplay goals from Tomas Karpov and Miroslav Vantroba extended Bison's advantage either side of the second break, putting them 5-1 in front.

Phantoms' Milan Baranyk and Bison's Ciaran Long's strikes made the score 6-2, before five players were sent off following a brawl between the two sides.

Bison's Greener, Long and Matt Selby were ejected, as were Phantoms' Greg Pick and Janis Auzins, with the game being temporarily halted as a result.

When they returned, the Phantoms' took advantage of the powerplay as Baranyk scored twice to complete his hat-trick, but it was not enough to deny Bison the win.

And Bison followed up their opening day victory by beating the Chelmsford Chieftains 5-1 in the start of their English Challenge Cup defence.

It took until the second period for Bison to open the scoring, as first Declan Balmer scored on the powerplay before Aaron Connolly netted either side of the second break.

Ross Brears pulled one back for the Chieftains, but Karpov got the Herd's fourth and Hallan Wilson added a fifth on his debut with the squad to complete the dominant win.

Bison have two fixtures this weekend, hosting Manchester Phoenix on Saturday before travelling to Peterborough to face the Phantoms again.

'Stoke beaten

IT was a narrow defeat for Basingstoke RFC on Saturday, as they were beaten away at Guildford 37-31 in the London One South.

'Stoke battled back having been 24-7 behind at half-time, which the hosts extended to 29 shortly after the break before the visitors got back into the game.

They were able to get back to within six points, but couldn't score a last minute try that could have seen them steal the victory.

Basingstoke are seventh in the league after their opening two games with six points, three behind early leaders Sidcup.

Their next match is at home to Cobham on Saturday.

Ladies lose

BASINGSTOKE Town Ladies endured a tough weekend as they were beaten 5-4 in a tight game with Parley Sports Ladies on Sunday.

Two goals from Lindsey Beverley and one each for Justine Mosley and Sian Wylie were not enough to beat Parley, who saw a hat-trick for Rachel Anderson.

It means that Basingstoke sit fifth in the Southern Region Women's Football League standings with three points after three games.

And Basingstoke face Parley again this Sunday, this time in their first League Cup tie.

Hockey defeat

BASINGSTOKE Hockey Club were defeated in their first pre-season match of the season, losing 2-1 to Ashford on Saturday afternoon.

Ben Shaughnessy had put Basingstoke into the lead in the first half, before Ashford responded to level the match.

And they took the lead shortly after the break, and Basingstoke were unable to add to their tally to try and save a draw.

They now prepare for the Hampshire Cup tournament next week as their pre-season preparations continue.

Rose ends PGA Tour on a high with top-five result in the US

JUSTIN Rose leapt up the Fedex Cup rankings after finishing the season-ending Tour Championship in a tie for fourth place on Sunday.

Rose was 26th in the rankings – based on how many points each golfer has scored over the PGA Tour season – before the weekend's event.

But rounds of 72, 66, 66 and 69 ensured Rose jumped up to 11th after the conclusion of last week's tournament in Georgia, USA.

His tournament got off to a slow start as he finished his first round two over par, six adrift of the leaders.

But successive four under par rounds brought Rose back into contention, and he was just three shots behind American Billy Horschel and Northern Ireland's Rory McIlroy going into the final day.

And a 69 in the last round meant that Rose finished on seven under par, tied with American Chris Kirk and Australia's Jason Day.

They were four shots behind tournament winner Horschel, who also finished the season top of the Fedex Cup standings following his win.

Rose's attention now turns to the Ryder Cup, which gets underway at Gleneagles in Scotland on September 26.

Woe for Wintney but Whitchurch and Tadley win

HARTLEY Wintney were beaten for the second time in the Combined Counties Premier league on Saturday, as they lost 3-2 at home to Spelthorne Sports.

Spelthorne have won every game so far this season, while Wintney have three wins, one draw and two losses to their name and sit 10th in the table with 10 points.

Elsewhere, Whitchurch United continued their strong start to the season with a 3-2 victory against Hamworthy United.

The Jam Boys are unbeaten so far this season – one of just two sides in the Wessex Premier Division yet to lose – and sit fifth in the standings.

And Tadley Calleva moved into second in the Wessex Division One table after a 4-1 home win versus Hythe and Dibden.

Calleva are also unbeaten in their opening four league matches, and have two games in hand over table toppers United Services Portsmouth.

In the Hampshire Senior Cup on Tuesday night, Wintney beat Andover New Street 5-2, Whitchurch triumphed against Andover Town 4-2, while Calleva beat Basingstoke Town on penalties.

Wintney and Whitchurch return to league action this Saturday.

HAVANT BEAT TOWN

TWO lapses in concentration cost Basingstoke Town dear last Saturday as they were beaten 2-0 by Havant & Waterlooville in the Vanarama Conference South.

Bradley Bubb and Scott Donnelly scored for Havant as Town were beaten for the third time this season.

Last Saturday's defeat saw the Dragons drop to fifth in the league table after eight games and Bristow's side are now four points behind top of the table Boreham Wood who visit the Soccer AM Stadium this weekend.

Wood have lost once on the road so far this season, but have scored 11 goals and only conceded three on their travels.

In an even encounter against Havant it seemed only a mistake would lead to the deadlock being broken as chances were few and far between.

And when Nathan Smart slipped, Nic Ciardini's cross from the left was headed home by Bubb on 26 minutes.

The second half followed the same pattern, but Town's Stuart Moore was the busier of the two keepers as Havant pressed for a second.

However, new signing Jamie Brown's (right) introduction on 59 minutes seemed to change the flow of the game.

Town gained the upper hand and Brown's rasping drive cannoned back off the upright with Havant stopper Ryan Young well and truly beaten.

Basingstoke continued to intensify the pressure but Havant began to exploit the visitors on the break.

And on 84 minutes, Stuart Moore picked the ball up 25 yards from goal and curled an effort into the bottom corner and past Moore's outstretched hand.

During midweek, Town's defence of the Hampshire Senior Cup was ended in the second round after they were knocked out on penalties by Tadley Calleva.

With the match finishing 2-2 after 90 minutes, Robbie Rice and Louis Soares netting, Tadley won it 5-4 on spotkicks.
